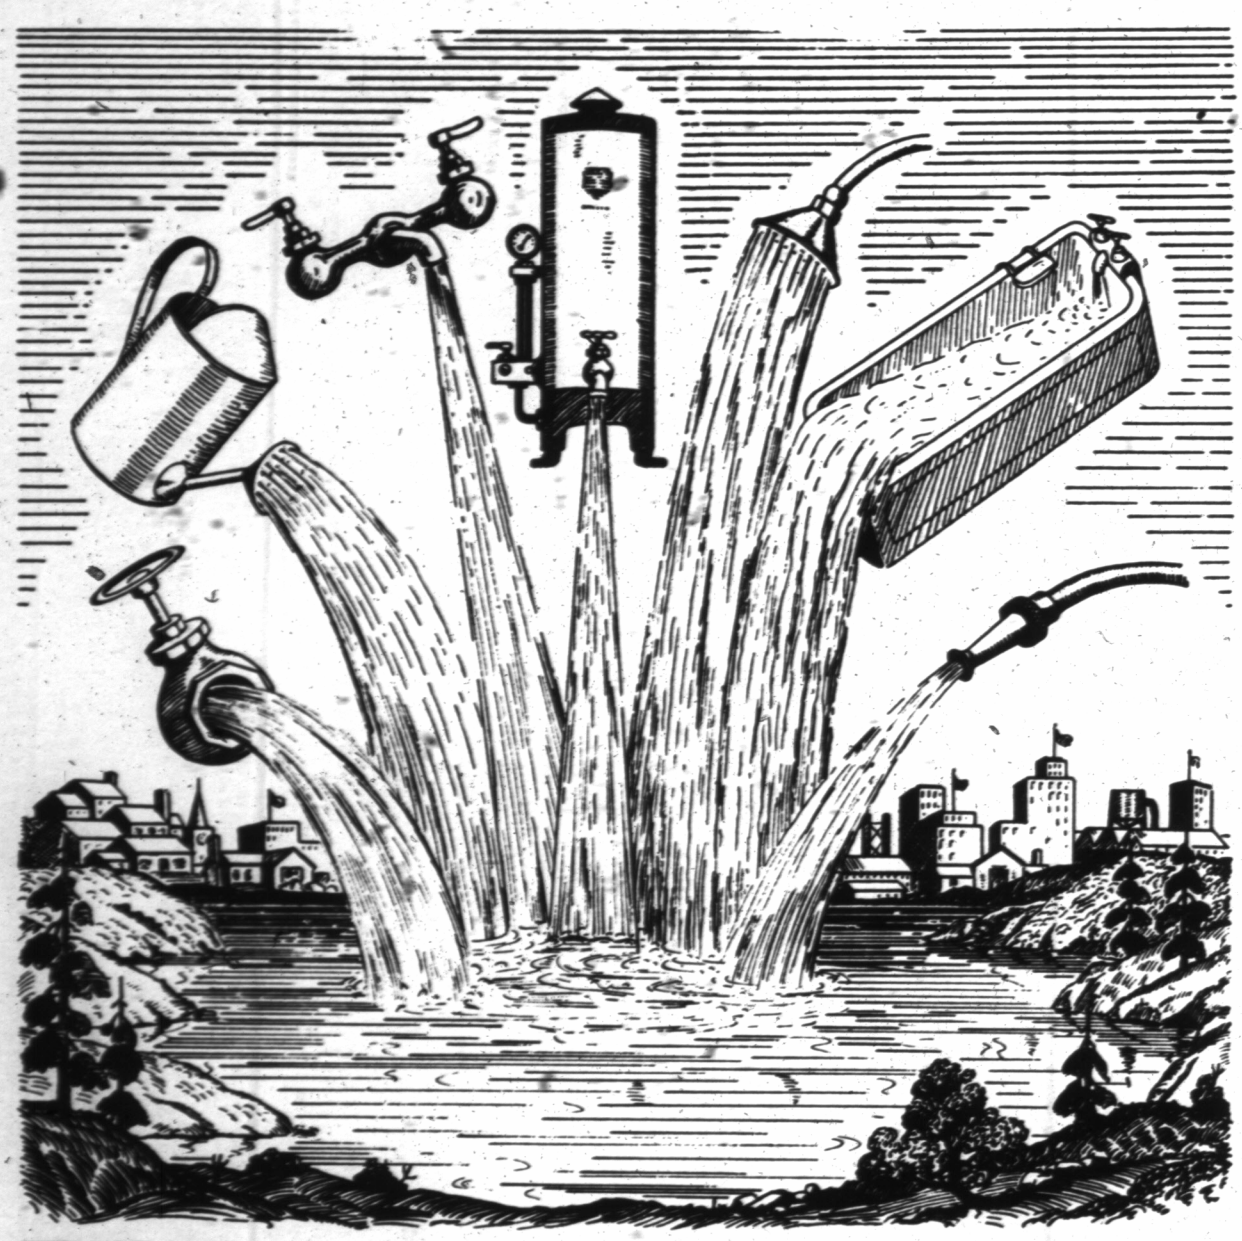
ALTAR SOCIETY ANNUAL DINNER THIS SUNDAY

St. Angelas Altar Society is in charge of the annual parish dinner, which will be served Sunday, January 28, from 1:30 to 7 P.M., at Carpenters Hall, New Monterey.

Mrs. Frank Seine is general chairman, assisted by Mrs. Tony Scuttish and Mrs. Leo Stoeth. Others heading committees are Mesdames William Fielo, Fred Fry, William Golden, Edmund Hurlbutt, Roy Morse, Louis Quarteroni, Don Purdy and J. H. Judge.

The Holy Name Men of the parish are in charge of the entertainment, games and country store. To be given as special awards are a General Electric refrigerator and washing machine. The public is cordially invited.



Water used in 1950

If all the water used in this area last year could be poured on one place, it would make a 6000 acre lake one foot deep. Water consumption on the Monterey Peninsula in 1950 was nearly two billion gallons.

Supplying good, safe water to the residents of modern American communities is a complicated task. The water must first be procured, then stored in reservoirs, safe-guarded for purity, and finally distributed through a complex system of pipes, valves, and pumps. All this requires a large and expensive physical plant and the constant watchfulness of trained water works men.

The price you pay for water, delivered just when and where you want it, is determined by operation expenses and plant investment, and regulated by the Public Utilities Commission of the State of California. And the price is very low—less than ten cents a ton.

CAMPAIGN FOR NEW MEMBERS

Membership dues to the Carmel Businessmen's Association are due and payable this week.

An intensive membership campaign is about to be launched, under the leadership of Oscar Balzer, new chairman of the association.

Everyone is welcome to join, and those interested should contact Mr. Balzer or Mrs. Roderick Wilson, Carmel 7-6692.

EUROPEAN GARDENS VIEWED BY GARDEN CLUB

Vivid color slides of some of the famous gardens of Europe were presented at the first meeting of the year of the Monterey Peninsula Garden Club, last Friday. Mrs. Frank Wilkinson, retiring president, opened the meeting, and then turned it over to the new president, Mr. Earl DeSmidt. Other new officers are Mes. Weston Booth, vice president, Mrs. Harry Diffenbaugh, Jr., recording secretary, Mr. E. H. Dankworth, treasurer, and Mrs. Marjorie Prince, corresponding secretary. Many new members and guests were welcomed.

Mr. DeSmidt introduced the speaker of the evening, Mr. V. L. Goldman, of California Spray Chemical, who gave a short talk on what to do now in your garden. Because of the mild winter, he says there will be a bumper crop of bugs this coming season. Right now the garden should be cleaned up, sprayed, and mulched with rotted manure and straw. A good dormant spray is recommended. Areas such as driveways and gravel walks should be treated with a ground sterilizer that will keep any weeds or grass from coming up. As evidenced by the budding out of many shrubs, an early spring is anticipated this year.

ALL SAINTS' AUXILIARY NEWS

Representatives of All Saints' Auxiliary, Carmel, attended an all-day converence for officers and leaders of parish auxiliaries at Grace Cathedral, San Francisco, last Friday.

Attending from Carmel were Mrs. C. J. Strickland, president, Mrs. C. W. Whiting, Mrs. W. H. Jones, Mrs. J. W. Vaughan and Mrs. B. J. Bacon.

The program included an address by Miss Katherine Grammar, chairman of the department of Christian education, work shops on several subjects including program building, supply work, Christian social relations, United Thank Offering, organization administration, finance and worship. The day opened with Holy Communion in the chapel of Grace Cathedral, with Bishop Karl M. Block as celebrant.

The next meeting of the Auxiliary will be Thursday, February 1, an all-day sewing meeting starting at 10:30 A.M., members bringing their lunch. Coffee will be served at noon.

Elected delegates will attend the Diocesan Woman's Auxiliary meeting to be held at Grace Cathedral in San Francisco, February 1, in conjunction with the annual diocesan convention. Delegates will be Mesdames C. J. Strickland, E. Madison, B. J. Bacon, with Mesdames R. R. Wallace, C. Fox and J. W. Dickenson as alternates.

Robert A. Street, long time friend of your editor, was married last week, in Las Vegas, to Frances Charles, stage and radio actress. It was Mr. Street who took over the publishing of the CARMEL SPECTATOR last spring for a three week period while the newspaper's owners took a vacation.

Since leaving Carmel, Bob Street has returned to radio and television activities and is now living in Hollywood, where he is an account executive with the American Broadcasting Company. Mr. and Mrs. Street are expected to visit in Carmel over Washington's birthday.

POLIO FIGHT FACES CRISIS

Only a few days remain of the 1951 March of Dimes.

As in former years, most citizens of our country have contributed generously to the fight against the cruel epidemic disease--infantile paralysis. But this year is not like former years. This year, unless contributions are increased, the program of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis stands in danger of curtailment.

Consequently, for those who have not get given--and for those who may be able to give again--these few reminders are pertinent:

1. Through March of Dimes funds, thousands of boys and girls are enabled to obtain the care they need when polio strikes. There have been more polio cases in the last three years than ever before for a similar period.

2. Through March of Dimes funds a great program of scientific research and professional education is being financed to find a preventive or cure and to train polio experts. Progress is being made at an ever-increasing rate, and success eventually seems assured.

3. Through March of Dimes funds we shall someday relegate polio to the limbo of conquered diseases. In the meantime, we cannot let any of today's patients down.

The dimes march. Are yours in line?

Carl Patnude is the Carmel chairman of the March of Dimes.

1951 BUICKS SELLING FAST

The Peninsula Automobile Company, local Buick distributor in Monterey, has been the scene of much activity this week, as the 1951 Buicks went on display.

According to Cliff Jones, of Carmel, head of the local Buick outlet, quite a number of orders for the new cars have been taken. Despite the large monthly payments now required on all car purchases, buyers apparently feel that they had better purchase a late model car now in case of drastic cut-backs in production.

Buick for 1951 is offering an improved Special series with new body and engine designs, for this line. The engine is the F-263 Fireball introduced in the Super line last year. In addition to the Special and Super lines there is the luxurious Roadmaster series. All of the lines have been restyled. All cars are for six passengers except one--the three-passenger coupe.

CONTEST TONIGHT BETWEEN CARMEL YOUTH CENTER AND SANTA BARBARA ALL-AMERICANS

The basketball game scheduled for tonight (Friday) between the Carmel Youth Center and the All-Americans from Santa Barbara promises to be an exciting game for all basketball fans.

The Youth Center's team will be aided by a few players from the Frost Roofers' team. This will help a lot as the first season was marked by many losses for the inexperienced team. Members of the Youth Center's team are Max Hodges, Jim Hare, Walt Frey, Lee Laugenour, Dick Weer, Gordie Miyamoto, Gene Vandervort and Ward Gilbert.

The All-Americans from Santa Barbara should be a good team to watch, as they have the record of winning 13 out of 16 games played this season. They are donating their talent--proceeds from the game being given to the Youth Center. Members of the Youth Center are out selling tickets from house to house--$1.00 for adults, 50¢ for servicemen, 35¢ for students. This game will follow the high school game scheduled for 8:30 P.M.

INTRODUCTION TO EDUCATION NEW MPC COURSE

That education is a social force, and that realistic teacher and parental training should include appreciation of the social, economic, and political elements of present-day society, is the philosophy which prompted the Monterey Peninsula College to offer a new course, "Introduction to Education," with Dr. Joseph D. Blacow as instructor. Classes begin January 25, 1951.

Designed primarily for both beginning and prospective teachers the course will also be of value to parents--since teachers, schools and parents must work together for education to achieve its maximum effectiveness.

Classes in Education I, Introduction to Education, will be held each Tuesday and Thursday morning at 9:00 o'clock, Room B-3, on the college campus. Interested persons may still register. As with all subjects offered at the college, there is no tuition fee

FIREBALL POWERED

ALL-STAR LINE-UP FOR '51!

YOUR first eye-smacking look at the line of lovelies pictured here tells you that they've got what it takes in visual charm.

But the fellow who said a picture speaks louder than a thousand words wasn't talking about these superbly able 1951 Buicks.

Sure, they're smart to look at—smart in style and smart in dress.

But they're also smartly powered—smartly engineered—smartly priced. And it would take a book to describe in full their deep-down goodness.

What's been done for '51 is to take the best automobiles that ever bore the Buick name—and top them.

Come, look them over, and you'll see what we mean.

There's the SPECIAL which can accurately be titled "the newest car in the world"—new in structure, new in power, new in dimensions, new in thrift—and potent in price appeal.

There's the SUPER—that looks and is a smart new edition of its "best seller" forebear.

Then there's the ROADMASTER—that coddles your anatomy on luxurious new fabrics and cloud-soft cushions—pampers your pride with its lordly bearing—shoots a delicious tingle right up your spine by the exuberance of its power and action.

We could go on and on. This is the car that brings Convertible and Riviera styling to new lower price levels. This is the car with new high-visibility instrument dials. This is the car that "breathes through its nose." This is the car that sports a brand-new front-end styling—and a host of other news-making features you can't afford to miss.

So your No. 1 date this week end is with your Buick dealer. It won't take you long to conclude that he's offering the smartest buys of the year.

No other car provides all this:

DYNAFLOW DRIVE* —saves strain on driver and car

FIREBALL POWER—high-compression, valve-in-head engine gets more good from every drop of fuel

PUSH-BAR FOREFRONT—combines smart style and unsurpassed protection

WHITE-GLOW INSTRUMENTS—greater clarity at night

TORQUE-TUBE DRIVE—steadies ride, improves driving control

4-WHEEL COIL SPRINGING—cushions ride, saves servicing costs

SELF-ENERGIZING BRAKES—hydraulic—multiply pedal-pressure five times at brake drum

DREAMLINE STYLING—tapered, car-length fenders, gleaming sweep-spears on most models

Plus: Self-locking luggage lid, StepOn parking brake, two-way ignition lock, Safety-Ride rims, Hi-Poised engine mounting, Body by Fisher

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Standard equipment, accessories and trim illustrated are subject to change without notice.

"THIS MUCH WE CAN DO NOW"

What sort of a program--how much of a program--and when does it start--are questions being asked in each community concerning civil defense procedures. As official pamphlets are completed by the National Civil Defense organization, information will be released from time to time through the newspapers.

In the meantime, Carmel's immediate problem is the equipping of a Civil Defense Office from which, under the direction of Captain H. M. Gleason, the local defense program can be put into operation. At present the quarters are provided--the old Council Chambers on Monte Verde--but there's nothing in them. What can be done to further the progress of this most essential program? Dig out from that "glory hole" where all the not-neededs are reposing, a suitable desk, chairs, rug or other pieces of office equipment. Anyone who can contribute should call Captain Gleason at 7-4828.

Selection of block wardens is going ahead on a volunteer basis, and consideration is being given to the all vital problem of a suitable air raid siren to replace Carmel's present fire whistle. General Robertson, state director of civil defense, has indicated that manuals concerning the erection of individual air raid shelters will be available soon. Suitable places for public shelters in Carmel will be selected later.

MYSTERY DANCE

An evening of "different" entertainment, with Actor Tom Fadden as emcee, will be provided by the Del Monte Kennel Club for its pre-Valentine Dance Saturday evening, February 10, at Banquet Hall, Mission Ranch, Carmel.

Tickets at $1 per couple, plus tax, will be on sale at the door. It's to be a real sweetheart affair--with music endorsed by St. Valentine and played by an excellent orchestra. Dominating the whole affair will be that mystery personality "Pug of My Heart."

JO JO WAS HERE -- WE MISSED HIM

Last Friday an ape sat at our desk, chewing a pencil as he waited for us to take down his story. And Friday was the day we didn't show up at the office. Only one staff member was working and she was busy getting out the ARMED FORCES SPECTATOR, another of our publications. Besides, we had with us, as we played hookey, our trusted Polaroid camera. So, we apologize to our readers, to Jo Jo, a Gibbon ape, his owner, Bill Finch, and to his hosts in Carmel, Mr. and Mrs. Vic MacKenzie, for not being able to publish a picture of Jo Jo as he sat at our desk chewing our pencil--a performance usually reserved for your editor's pleasure.

Jo Jo came to the Monterey Peninsula to act in a movie scheduled to be shot in Monterey, but because of the weather the production had to be cancelled for the time being. Mr. Finch, an old friend of the MacKenzies, was formerly head of the Street Railway System in Cleveland. Retiring from active business, he has since devoted his time to collecting, raising and training animals. Jo Jo is one of his favorites. While in Carmel, Bill Finch suffered a slight heart attack and, according to Mrs. Mac Kenzie, Jo Jo was all for assisting Dr. Hugh Dormody who was called in for consultation. He seemed to know what was happening. On Monday, Jo Jo and his owner were driven home to the Southland by Vic MacKenzie, so we shall have to wait until they return for that picture.

Among Jo Jo's accomplishments is his ability to use bathroom facilities. In fact, he usually sleeps in the bathroom when travelling with his master. On the way to Carmel, Bill was awakened one night by Jo Jo, while they were registered at a motel, because the seat of the toilet had been left down and Jo Jo wanted it raised. Jo Jo would have a field day in Scotland because he also likes to raise skirts. His chuckle, accompanying this little trick, they tell us, is really worth hearing.

YOU helped these two O'Neill sisters to walk and play again. Both had polio. First Little Pamella. Then Patricia. Their local March of Dimes chapter in Raleigh, N. C., paid more than $3,000 to help care for them. There are 2,800 such chapters supported by the dimes and dollars you give to the March of Dimes in January. During the last three years, the nation has suffered a succession of the most severe polio epidemics in history. Four of every five polio patients needed and received help from the March of Dimes. Today, all funds for patient care have been spent. But care cannot stop. Thousands of polio victims look to you for help. Please join the 1951 March of Dimes.

"EAST LYNNE" OPENS FEBRUARY 9

Announcement of the cast for "East Lynne" comes from Rhea Diveley, director at California's First Theatre, State Monument, where the famous old melodrama is scheduled to open on Friday night, February 9, produced by the Denny-Watrous Management. The cast, chosen from the 48 persons who tried out, is as follows:

Sir Francis Levison, to be played by Harry Davidson; Archibald Carlyle, Terry Eby; Lord Mount Severn, Ray Necel; Richard Hare, Joseph Gilbert; Mr. Dill, John Burghers; Officer, James Rutledge; Barbara Hare, Carmen Mercant; Miss Carlyle, Jean Allred; Joyce, Clare Barnwell; Wilson, Edythe Amaral; Little Willie, Liz Haskell. John Burgers will emcee the show. Gail Johnson, Hedy Steudler, Pamela Beales will appear in the olio, although not in the show proper.

THE STREETS OF NEW YORK, First Theatre's current smash-hit, has but two performances remaining: the one tomorrow evening, January 27, and the closing performance on Saturday night, February 3.

NO HUMAN ACTOR IN "THE TITAN" COMING TO HILL

Perhaps the most impressive art film ever produced opens a four-day run at the Hill Theater in Monterey with the Sunday matinee. This is "The Titan," a Swiss-made documentary which, with extraordinary vividness and emotional accuracy, recreates the times and the work of Michelangelo.

"The Titan" was filmed in the period 1938 to 1940. No sooner was it completed than the film was confiscated by the Nazis, who showed it throughout wartime Europe, palming it off as a German product. Confiscated, in turn, by the U.S. military, the film was brought to this country and here came to the attention of Robert Flaherty. Flaherty's staff released their tightened-up version in January of 1950, with a narration by Frederic March.

Not a single human actor is employed in the film, and yet it conveys with tremendous impact the master's history as well as the historical milieu in which he worked. In dealing with the art itself, "The Titan" is superb, the camera caressing the stone like a seeing hand and exploring the vast reaches of the Sistine ceiling as no eye could do it.

A color-film presentation of "Pagliacci," in Italian, shares the program. Tito Gobi of the Metropolitan Opera sings the title role.

FOREST THEATER GUILD TRYOUTS

The Forest Theater Guild will get back on the boards with its next production a hilarious Broadway comedy, "Light Up the Sky," written by the ever-engaging Moss Hart. The play is full of juicy parts for all ages, and the nine male and four feminine roles offer a wide scope for amateur actors. It is the kind of show that is as much fun to participate in as for the audience to enjoy.

Try-outs will be held on Tuesday, February 6, at 8 P.M. The place for the try-outs will be announced in the next issue of this paper, so that those interested in being cast for a part may watch for this announcement, or call Jane Parker at 7-3256.

"Light Up the Sky" had a successful run in New York, with Glenn Anders, Jane Middleton and the lovable, amusing Phyllis Payah in leading roles.

AUDUBON SCREEN TOUR "UNDERWATER KINGDOM"

The next Audubon Screen Tour is scheduled for Friday, February 2, at Sunset School Auditorium, with an unusual setting as the locale of the subject matter. The lecturer, Mrs. Lucie Palmer, has developed the art of taking motion pictures under water and, even more unusual, has perfected means of actually painting in oils while under the sea. Her subject will be, appropriately, "Underwater Kingdom." The submerged valleys and hills of the undersea world have become places for her to explore and portray in paintings and in color motion pictures.

Down to the sea in a diving helmet--that's the way much of this enchanting and unusual film was created. For that is one of the most interesting ways to discover the special qualities of water in its many phases.

Weird and colorful creatures live in the underwater kingdom. Below the surface of clear blue waters are great varieties of inhabitants that swim, crawl or walk. With specially created camera equipment Lucie Palmer and her husband, Vincent, have taken natural color motion pictures of all that goes on in a region that story books describe as Neptune's carnival lands.

Sea horses, with twenty baby sea "ponies"; an octopus throwing out its ink barrage; starfish strolling along on all 1,000 legs; giant jellyfish with multicolored tentacles like fragile may-poles; sergeant major, "world's bravest animal"; toadfish; angelfish; porpoise; rays; sting rays; sharks; conchs; trunkfish; barracuda; doctorfish; schoolmasters; cowfish; an amazing array of characters photographed in their own locales among the hills and valleys that lie unseen below the waves.

The authenticity of these scenes makes them a significant contribution to science--to our knowledge of a great and important part of the natural resources we constantly depend upon. Lucie Palmer relates that wonder world of water to our own daily lives. And the beauty and adventure of her "Underwater Kingdom" make this program one of the most delightful experiences imaginable.

WHARF PLAYERS, INC. CAMPAIGNING FOR $5,000

All the enthusiasm and expectancy of a first night audience were evident in the expressions and excited whisperings among the group of more than fifty people gathered Tuesday evening in the little theatre on the wharf, Monterey, to discuss the campaign to raise the $5,000 needed by January 31--to buy and operate the theatre under their new title, WHARF PLAYERS, INC.

To date, these civic-minded, theatre-minded people have obtained pledges for more than half of the needed amount, and if the esprit de corps of those present at Tuesday's meeting is any indication, the remainder will be raised prior to the deadline date without question.

An open organization, the Wharf Players, Inc., welcomes all persons interested in the furtherance and development of dramatic entertainment on the Peninsula, whether as actor, stage-hand, audience, or "angel."

Following a meeting of the temporary Board of Directors on January 31, an informal meeting of all the stockholders will be held in the Wharf Theatre on February 1, at 8 P.M., to get acquainted with new members, discuss developments to date and plans and policies for the future, as well as to commence thinking of permanent officers and directors for the corporation and set the date for the first regular meeting. All stockholders are urged to attend and others interested in the theatre are welcome.

Stock is selling for $25 a share. Make check payable to Wharf Players, Inc. Mail check to Mrs. G. R. Parker, Box I, Carmel.

BETSY ABBOTT says:

WINTER DEW ON DENIM is the effect of the delicate white embroidery on the cute little denims at THE COLLEGIATE SHOP. There are a variety of pieces which all go together nicely. A boned bra--for only $3.98--is long in the torso and could be worn with the bell-shaped skirt in the collection to create a little strapless dress. A one-piece versatile dress that can be worn strapless or with a slender halter strap is only $10.98. It has a crisp white pique bolero to cover up bare shoulders when one wishes to. A camisole blouse is a nice addition to this galaxy of embroidered denim. And finally, little shorts--very brief--with a trend towards an upward cut and a surprising little slit on the sides--complete this group of very wearable play clothes. Furthermore, they are sanforized. For that wonderful tan you plan on getting this summer, nothing could so well help you attain it... and then show it off to advantage...than these ingeniously cut denims to be found at THE COLLEGIATE DRESS SHOP, 489 Alvarado Street, Monterey.

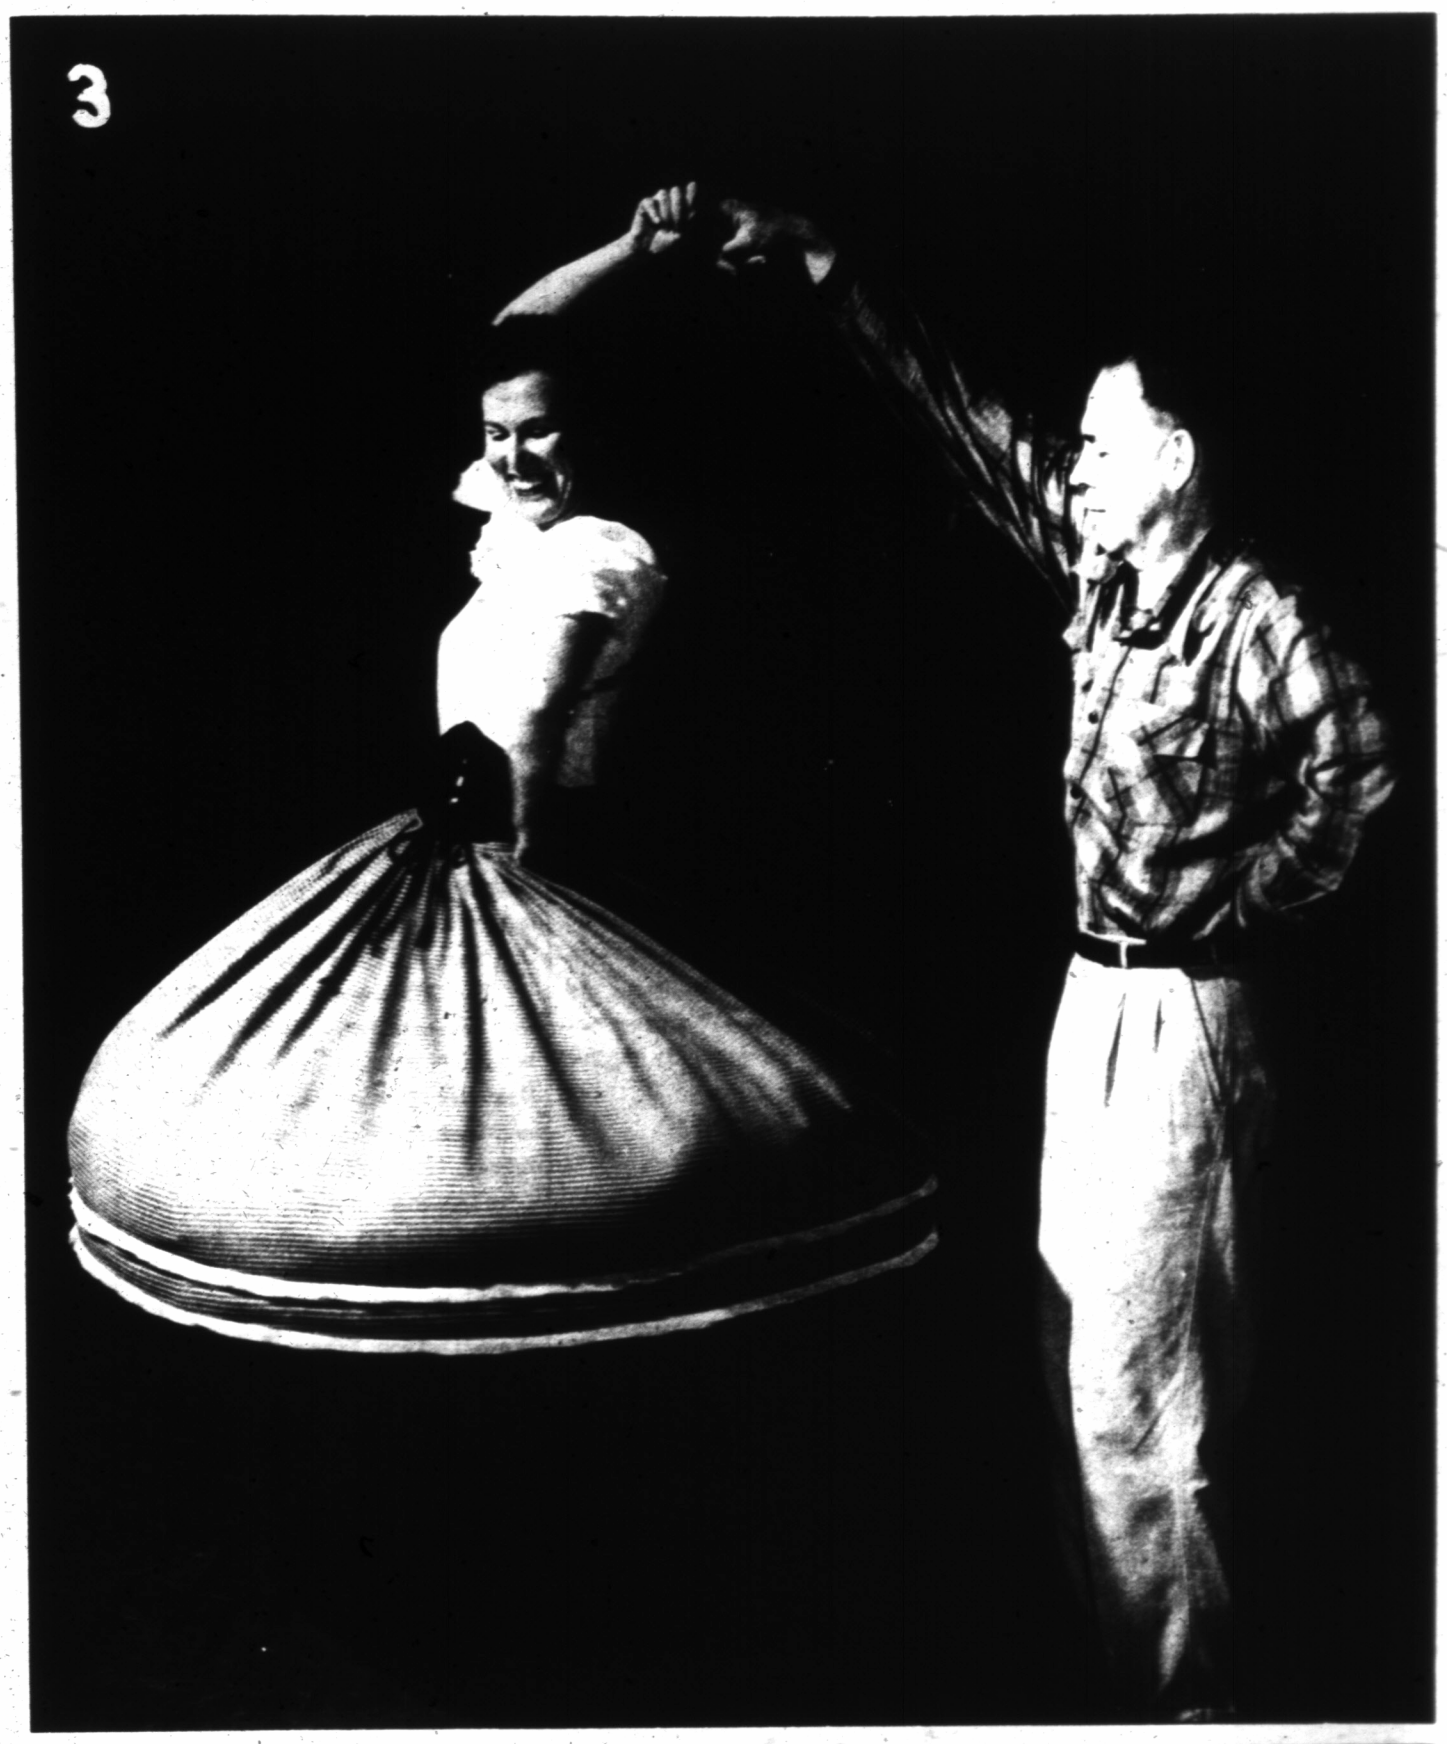
LL THE STORY



ANSWER TO THIS WEEK'S WHO IS IT?

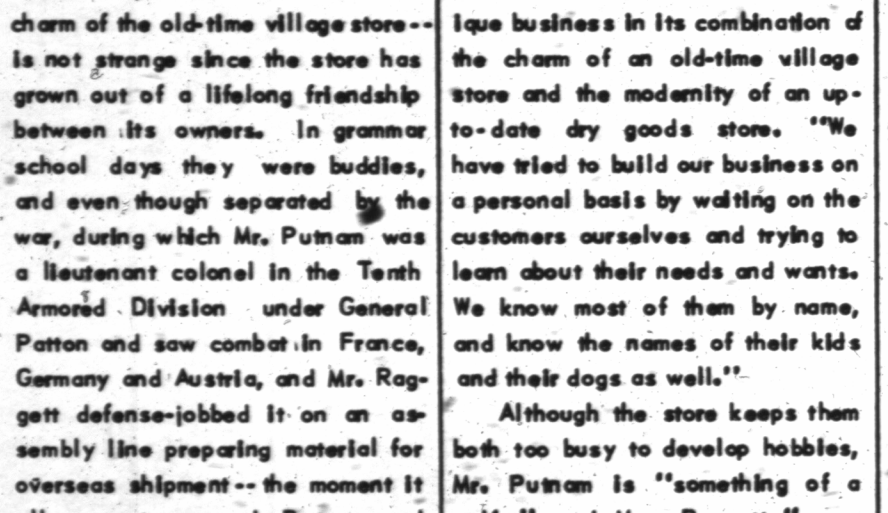
Our "Who Is It?" this week is the Putnam and Raggett "twins." "Which twin has the Toni?" The dark-haired one on the right is Mark Raggett. Now it can be known which of this Damon and Pythias partnership is which.

That customers feel a friendliness in the atmosphere of this little shop--which has all the charm of the old-time village store--is not strange since the store has grown out of a lifelong friendship between its owners. In grammar school days they were buddies, and even though separated by the war, during which Mr. Putnam was a lieutenant colonel in the Tenth Armored Division under General Patton and saw combat in France, Germany and Austria, and Mr. Raggett defense-jobbed it on an assembly line preparing material for overseas shipment--the moment it all came to an end, Putnam and Raggetts' came into existence. In fact, the very day Frank Putnam was "mustered out," January 18, 1946, the doors were opened. "In spite of the fact that even with one's family one has a beef occasionally, we've never spoken a harsh word to one another in the five years we've been at it. Many partners mix their social life with their business, but that we've never done."

Mr. Raggett's ten years of experience as regional salesman in California, Washington, Oregon, Nevada, and Arizona for a large wholesale dry goods business, together with Mr. Putnam's psychology major at the University of Arizona, as well as several years as a salesman, have created a unique business in its combination of the charm of an old-time village store and the modernity of an up-to-date dry goods store. "We have tried to build our business on a personal basis by waiting on the customers ourselves and trying to learn about their needs and wants. We know most of them by name, and know the names of their kids and their dogs as well."

Although the store keeps them both too busy to develop hobbies, Mr. Putnam is "something of a golfer" and Mr. Raggett "something of a gardener." "In fact, I'm getting to be quite a patio brick layer as well."

Mr. Raggett has two youngsters, Michael, ten, and Jon, six; and Mr. Putnam three--"a pre-war model, Reed, twelve, a during-the-war model, Anne, nine (born five days after Pearl Harbor), and a post-war model, Jane, four, born in Carmel."



CARMEL WOMAN'S CLUB. Photograph above, by Steve Crouch, shows Mrs. James Burgess, chairman of committee in charge of fashion show, Miss Barbara May, model from Lynn's, Mrs. Ann Knox and Mrs. Ronald MacGregor.

On Friday, February 2, the Carmel Woman's Club is sponsoring a Fashion Show and Dessert Card Party, at 1 P.M., for the benefit of the Carmel Youth Center. The admission is $1.00 (including tax). Local models will display Bee Mouser's originals. Mrs. Conlan of Lynn's Ltd. will exhibit Evans' suits, Chinese lounging pajamas of pure silk damask and Hawaiian prints designed by Mrs. Conlan.

A pleasant afternoon is in store. For reservations, phone Mrs. James Burgess, chairman, 7-7736, or Mrs. W. C. Peterson, 7-4947. Mrs. Ann Knox is receiving hostess; Mrs. Ronald McGregor, in charge of models; Mrs. Sinclair McClellan, dessert and coffee; Mrs. W. C. Peterson, table decorations and reservations. CARMEL WOMAN'S CLUB ADDRESSED BY ELEANOR RUTH BOWER

Presided over by Mrs. Barbara Murphy, first vice-president and program chairman, the Book Section of the Carmel Woman's Club met Monday, January 22 at 2 P.M., to hear Eleanor Ruth Bower.

Introduced by Mrs. Benjamin G. Johnson, chairman of the Book Section, Eleanor Ruth Bower, well known lacturer and authority on speech arts, held her audience of approximately one hundred persons interested by her charming personality, perfect diction, pleasant voice placement, as well as her well organized presentation of facts in developing the topic: "Natchez on the Mississippi: Its Legend and History."

"Natchez," said Miss Bower, "is symbolic of what our country has been through." Tracing the history of Natchez from its beginnings under Spain, through the regimes of the English, French, and the Indian Massacre to the ultimate possession by the colonies in 1700, the speaker told how Andrew Ellicott proclaimed the territory for America and hoisted the Stars and Stripes over Natchez.

The history of three families was chosen for the history and legend. In her research, Miss Bower found many historical names and events connected with these homes: Concord, Gloucester and Clifton. Among these were Philip Nolan, "The Man without a Country," Winthrop Sargent, Pierre Surget of Normandy, Aaron Burr, Andrew Jackson, Thomas Jefferson, and couriers of the Civil War period. Reference was made to Catherine Grafton Miller, who originated the Pilgrimage party of the Garden Club. These old homes are opened as a symbol--a remnant of the past history "through feud and friendship."

Books descriptive of Natchez mentioned by the speaker were "Diary and Travels," a two-volume book by Revere nd Thomas Goodwin--a frank expose of life in the South; "Bayous of Louisiana;" "Natchez;" "Queen of New Orleans," by Harnet Kane; "Memoirs, Romance and Realism of Louisiana," by Minnie Myers.

In conclusion, Miss Bower referred to Natchez and the whistles on the Mississippi as symbolic of an awakening conscience in America to the beauty of Freedom.

Tea was served by Hostess Mrs. Victor B. McCrea, assisted by Mrs. H. J. Taggart and Mrs. John King. Table decorations featured an epergne of violets and daffodils arranged and contributed by Mrs. John King.

The next meeting will be that of the Garden Section, January 29. On the screen will be shown a color and sound picture of the deep South entitled "The Bellingrath Gardens on the Isle-Aux-Oies River.

Parent Problems

Tot Who Is Afraid of Dark

By GARRY CLEVELAND MYERS, Ph.D.

SUPPOSE you were a little child, three or four years old, and you woke up to discover that neither your father nor mother was there. Suppose a baby sitter you had never known or had not often seen, tried to comfort you then. Or suppose nobody at all were present, whether it were daytime or night.

Some mothers seem to think nothing of running down to the corner store or over to a neighbor's, after the baby or tot has gone to sleep at night or in the afternoon. Often this child may have such dependable sleep habits that the mother can return long before he awakens. But suppose this child should awaken earlier. Then in a few moments this child's suffering may start a problem of his insecurity that will run on for we can't predict how long. Here's a sample:

Afraid of Dark

"Dear Dr. Myers: Gyl, age 4½, is afraid of the dark. She's a precious little girl, and I can't think how to help her. Up until two weeks ago she was content to sleep alone in her room with just a small light. At that time I made a mistake which will never happen again. Unthinkingly, I went next door with some troublesome sewing; and Gyl awakened about 10 P.M. about half an hour before I returned home.

"Since that time, she insists on having her door open, and my bedroom door open, too. She also cries four or five different times during the night, and I have to go in to reassure her. Even during her afternoon nap, she'd like her door open, and usually awakens crying. I think rather than being afraid of the dark, as I suggested before, she feels insecure. Our bedroom doors are both left open all night, and I get up each time she cries and talk with her. But we are all getting pretty well worn out by this night after night of interrupted sleep, even Gyl herself."

Must Feel Sorry

In substance here is how I answered this mother: One must feel sorry for the nightly inconvenience to you parents, for your loss of rest and sleep, and most of all for your little girl's sleep disturbances and anxieties. But I'm glad you have the bedroom doors open and always go to that little child to comfort her when she awakens at night. This may be necessary for many more nights. It's wise you comfort her with your tender words and voice without taking her into bed with you. While the latter would be so much easier now it would almost surely create more serious problems later.

Of course, your having gone away from the house, after which that child awoke heartbroken on discovering she was left wholly alone in the house, is water over the dam. You know now it will take a long while to restore a sense of security in her. Work out this problem by day as well as by night. Make sure she can always count on you and know as far as possible what's going to happen next. Cuddle her often by day, read to her, rock her and sing lullabies to her. Gradually help her to be more self-reliant physically and emotionally. All this growth can come only very, very gradually. Protect her from all possible fears and overexcitement. Related bulletins are, "Fears," "The Nervous Child," and "Tot Learning to be Sociable" which may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this paper.

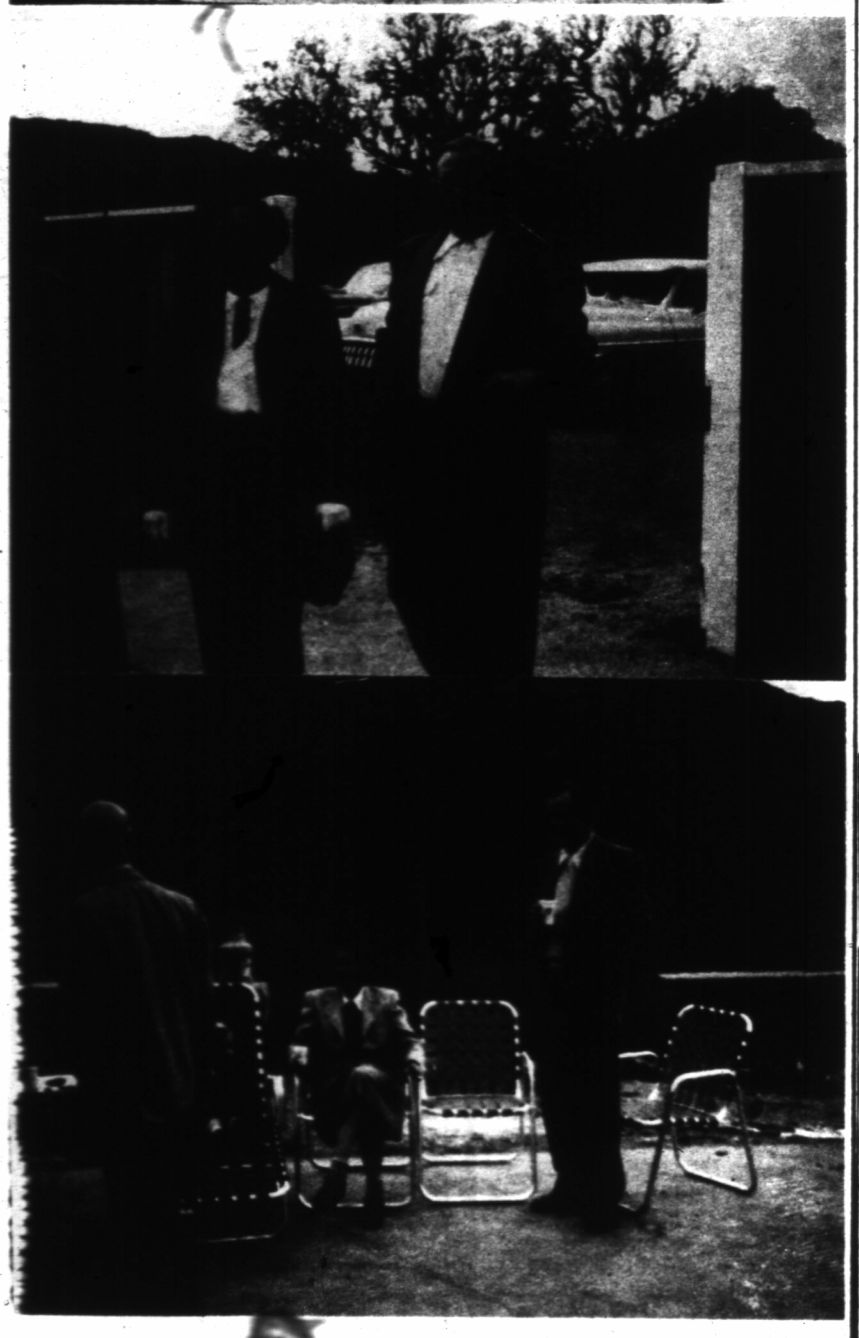
OPEN HOUSE AT CARMEL VALLEY COUNTRY CLUB



NEW CLUB OPENS IN CARMEL VALLEY

CARMEL VALLEY COUNTRY CLUB held open house last Sunday. Located two miles beyond the village in Carmel Valley, a new country club was previewed by the public, from 10 in the morning 'till evening. About one thousand interested members and prospective members, together with the just-curious, stormed the road leading to the buildings. Hosts Bob Robinson and Bob Mills, of "Big Bob" and "Little Bob" fame, who recently left the management of the Carousel in the Valley, are owner-managers of the new club.

The club property of approximately 400 acres was formerly the home of John Morse, president of the Del Monte Properties. Swimming pools for adults and children, steam rooms, guest quarters, tennis courts, dining and bar accommodations will all be available when the club officially opens on April 1. There is also under construction The Horse Trough Flickers--for the showing of old-time movies, a zoo and riding stables. By the time this story appears in print there will probably be other facilities for guests, for in the two years that Big and Little Bob have been in Carmel Valley they have promoted everything from flower exhibits to Chinese Nights--all their projects successful.
